Successfully ran a PE fund for SEE as well as private business activities in MEA.

INTEREST TO JOIN AS EXCOM MEMBER

- I have been a consumer of the services and initiatives of the Swiss Business Council now for over 5 years it is time that I give back to the organization that has stood steadfast in the growth and development of my firm's business activities in the UAE and supported us in all ways possible. I strongly believe that I have certain skill sets which can be applied to further enhance the presence and visibility of the Swiss Business Council in the UAE.
- It is important to capitalize on all of the hard work done by the new president of the Swiss business council and the ExCom. Under the new stewardship SBC has reignited its purpose and relevance for the business community and

I would like to continue the hard work to date in making the SBC an example of what a business council should look like and do of its members.

- I have the ambition to further support all Swiss expats in the UAE and the region and take a more active role in the sector finance and banking.
- I would like to work more in looking at the synergies between our business councils in the UAE and that in the KSA to see ways in which we can be of greater assistance to our members in both countries as well as in the region as a whole.
